.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ, order or direction more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus, declaring the action of the Respondent in not furnishing the relevant documents as illegal, arbitrary, and null and void, consequently direct the respondent to supply the necessary documents mentioned in the petitioner/workman representation dt. 11-10-2004.

Counsel for the Petitioner: Mr. S.PRADEEP KUMAR

Counsel for the Respondent: Mr. V.T.M.PRASAD

The Court at the stage of admission made the following ORDER:

The petitioner is working as a Conductor. He was issued a charge memo on 30-9-2004 for cash and ticket irregularity. He was directed to submit his explanation within seven days from the date of the charge memo. He made a representation to the respondent on 11-10-2004 to supply certain documents to enable him to submit his explanation. The petitioner, therefore, approached this Court seeking a direction to the respondent to supply the documents mentioned in his representation dated 11-10-2004.

Before submitting his explanation, the petitioner may need some information for incorporation in his explanation. Therefore, he is justified in seeking for supply of the documents relating to the enquiry for the purpose of verification. The petitioner without waiting for the reply from the respondent, rushed to this Court within two days from the date of his application seeking a direction to the respondent.

The respondent is therefore directed to supply the relevant documents mentioned in the application of the petitioner and grant one week time for him after furnishing copies of the documents for submitting his explanation and take further action in the mater.

The Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of.
